

I personally feel that the adds on TV, Radio and the internet are sufficient to sell products or solicit services. To be bothered in the comfort of my home is to me basically trespassing.

The FCC is funded by taxpayers and should listen to these people not big business. Leave the Wisconsin No Call list restrictions alone.